

Lebanon County Relay Day at the Mall

On Saturday, March 3, participating “jailbirds” will be hauled into center court and placed in a jail cell for a one-hour term. During that hour, they will be calling their friends & family asking them to make the donations they need to meet their $300 bail.

But, there is a trick... we play this game in opposition.

We will be collecting money from YOU, the public and Mall shoppers in order to keep each person jailed. Our goal is to collect more than the “jailbird... if we do, they are required to sit in the “can” for another hour!

It'll be great fun to watch these local celebrities dressed in stripes, and incarcerated, so tell your family, friends, and everyone you know to come on out & help us keep ‘um locked up!

Photo opportunities will be available (for a small donation)!

All Proceeds Benefit the Lebanon County Relay For Life.
